NAPE 2025 HONOURS & AWARDS

NOMINATION GUIDELINES & FORM FOR THE NAPE FELLOWSHIP

The NAPE Fellowship is a distinguished honour given in recognition of professionalism and service to the Association. The Award honours NAPE Active members who have distinguished themselves by their long-term service to the professional practice involving the application of geoscience and related disciplines in the exploration and exploitation of petroleum and related mineral resources and to the Nigerian Association of Petroleum Explorationists (NAPE). Fellows are expected to continue their active membership and exemplary service to the Association after their award, including the payment of membership dues (until such person becomes an Emeritus member) and participation in NAPE events.

CRITERIA

An Active Member duly sponsored by a minimum of five (5) Active members (at least two (2) of which must be fellows) who have paid their dues up to date in the current financial year, shall be considered for Fellowship if, in view of the Executive Committee, the nominee satisfies all the following criteria:

- i) he/she has held Active membership of the Association uninterrupted for at least fifteen (15) years. Consistent payment of annual dues for a sustained minimum period of 10 years from the year of application shall be required.
- ii) he/she has actively participated in NAPE activities at central and, or chapter levels or participated in leadership of the Association at regional chapter or central levels in the last ten (10) years. Reference Letters from Regional Chapter or Central Executive Committee leadership must confirm this.
- iii) has distinguished himself/ herself professionally by demonstrating outstanding professional performance and achievements in the teaching and practice of geoscience and related disciplines.
- iv) demonstrates a high level of integrity and ethical conduct for the profession, helping to deliver a positive change in the profession and society and promoting the highest professional standards while developing others and improving self.

Note: An Active Member who is a recipient of the Nigerian National Order of Merit Award may on due recommendation by the Executive Committee be considered for Fellowship.

RESTRICTIONS:

- 1) Nominees must not have been disciplined under Section 7 or Section 12 of the NAPE Constitution.
- 2) Nominees must be alive at the time of selection and must be personally present to receive the award. NAPE Honours and Awards shall not be given by proxy except for posthumous awards.
- 3) Serving Executive officers of the Association are ineligible for consideration while in office.
